

Latin American and Caribbean film Festival of Margarita

CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Film Festival of Margarita, organized by the Audiovisual Platform of the Venezuelan Ministry of People's Power for Culture, through the Distribuidora Nacional de Cine Amazonia Films, arrives to its third edition, which will take place in Margarita Island, in the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, from October 7th to 14th 2010. Being this year our bicentenary of independence We will be screening out of competition, and while our event takes place in Margarita, a selected number of films from Latin America in what we have called: Cine de Liberación... Por la independencia de los pueblos, La Lucha Continúa, (Liberation Cinema... for our countries independence, We keep fighting) showing different liberation processes that have taken place in our region.

Entries for Latin America and the Caribbean will be only for First Work Feature Films from any Latin or Caribbean country.

Our mission is to recognize the work and effort of filmmakers and talent in the audiovisual field, and in accordance with the Venezuelan state policies of transferring power to communities. The organization agreed for this edition and on, increase our reach and make the spectators prize a nationwide award by screening the competition films at the Regional Theatre circuit of The National Cinemateca Foundation.

On the other hand and according to our mission, we included for now and on, the III Concurso de Cine y Video Comunitario (Communitarian Film and Video Contest), as an official section of our festival. Screening in our main theatres in Margarita Island and during the event, the videos holding the first ten places in the contest.

Submission deadline is July 30th, 2010 for applications. Films notified of acceptance must be sent before September the 4th, 2010.

For application forms, rules or any additional information, please contact us through the following websites: www.amazoniafilms.gob.ve - www.cnac.gob.ve - www.villadelcine.gob.ve - www.cinemateca.gob.ve

